ABOUT ME

I am a marketing professional with over seven years of experience crafting meaningful content, engaging audiences through thoughtful communications, and managing multi-channel campaigns. My career began in public education, where I discovered my love for storytelling and building community, ultimately leading to my current role as Marketing & Communications Manager for the National Children's Chorus. Outside of work, I love barrel racing, exploring the outdoors, and cozying up with a good book.

WORK EXPERIENCE

NATIONAL CHILDREN'S CHORUS Austin, Texas
Marketing & Communications Manager 2023-Present

- Create and oversee campaigns across multiple channels, including email, social media (Facebook, Instagram, TikTok, YouTube), paid advertising, website, press and publicity, and print collateral, applying the Brand Guide for visual consistency.
- Draft high-volume Mailchimp emails for 12,000+ subscribers, manage the campaign calendar, format templates, and design automations that guide prospective members through the recruitment process.
- Built and maintain the organization's Writing Guide, setting voice, tone, and style standards, and create SOPs that document and improve department workflows.
- Support community management by building response templates and FAQs for the moderation team, assisting with membership inquiries as needed, and managing member data in a custom-built CRM.
- Plan and execute marketing campaigns across paid print and digital media, including Meta ads, within an annual budget of $80,000, using performance data to guide future strategy.
- Coordinate with contracted vendors, including graphic designers, photographers, videographers, and a PR firm, while creating smaller-scale content in Canva and Adobe and curating the digital asset library.
- Write donor appeals and VIP communications and organize annual giving campaigns in Donorbox, including branded receipts and letterhead.
- Identify B2B and B2C outreach opportunities across eight local markets and nationally, including media trades and cross-promotions with partner organizations, and represent the organization at industry events and conferences.
- Serve as Rehearsal Supervisor for the Austin chapter, leading on-site production by training new staff, supervising shifts and timekeeping, tracking inventory, and reporting to the Operations Director to keep local operations aligned with national standards.

WESTWOOD HIGH SCHOOL/ROUND ROCK ISD Austin, Texas
Choir Director 2019-2023

- Directed a 6A high school music program of 300+ students across choir, musical theatre, and piano, designing curriculum in sight-reading, vocal technique, and musicianship.
- Built program communications through a WordPress website, email newsletter, social media, and SMS to keep families and community members informed.
- Planned and led performances, festivals, and regional competitions, coordinating multi-week logistics and managing the annual program budget.

ADDITIONAL EXPERIENCE

RODEO REBEL
Owner & Founder 2019-2025
